Hon. D. M. Fox
Supt U. S. Mint Phila

Hon. Sir

Permit me to say, I send you the accompanying "Old Coin" which I think may be worthy of a place in your antique Collection in the Mint —

If it is worth consideration am acknowledgment If it is not by you owned please show me & you get it —

I am Hon. Sir
Respectfully Yours
Jno. Nicholson

P.S. I found it while digging. Have an old Castle in "Green Erin" I think it represents "St. Geo. & the Dragon" on one side —

I should add if you could give any light concerning "Old Coin" I am most anxious to know

Supt U.S. Mint Phila

Hon. Sir

Permit me to say I send you the accompanying "old coin" which I think may be worthy of a place in your antique collection in the Mint—

If it is worth consideration an acknowledgement of it—respt by you would show me you got it—

I am Hon$^{d}$ Sir

Respectfully Yours
Tho$^{s}$ Nicholson

PS I found it while digging near an old Castle in "Green Erin" I think it represents "St. Geo. & the Dragon" on one side

[Noted in margins:] I shall add if the gov't give any slight consideration for "old relics" I am not inaccessible.
